

Hillingdon Week of Peace 2010

Peace Pledges – these are some of the pledges made and handed to the Borough Commander and deputy mayor as part of the Walk of Peace for Hillingdon on Sunday 26th September 2010.

To work harder to bring together all the communities in Hillingdon. DB

I pledge to give children the chance to play and experience happiness. LB

Helping to run a soup kitchen over the Christmas period. Abbotsfield and Swakeleys
Post 16 School – with 10 signatures

I pledge to support, promote and uphold peace in Hillingdon AA

To participate in Community events around the borough. To reach out and encourage people around the borough to work for peace and human rights.

Members of the Hillingdon Amnesty International Group.

We can build a friendly relationship with our neighbours, discussing making peace in our neighbourhood, coming together against any disruption and solving problems as a community.

Members of the Hayes Nepalese Gurka Group.

I will give more hours of my time to my community, getting involved with joining litter-picking across the borough keeping God's world tidy to help community enjoy open spaces. Hillingdon councillor.

Continue to support my local Women's Centre – and hope others will too. LB

I will engage with fundraising and charity events for the community

To be aware of neighbours needs and the needs of the elderly

To be more of a peacemaker wherever I go

To be a peacemaker

- Where I live
- Where I work
- With anyone I meet

Love for all – hatred for none. Muslim Association members

Work for zero crime

Work to get organisations in Hillingdon to promote peace – promote the world

Volunteer locally in Uxbridge to help the community in different projects.

Never to say 'No' to a child that asks me for help